Project Overview

Known as a "Tropical Aquarium for People," the CoCo Key Water Resort in Waterbury, CT features an array of body and raft water slides, sport-activity pools, giant whirlpools, water cannons and waterfalls. M.J. Daly was selected to manage the installation of plumbing systems for this 55,000 SF indoor water park, which circulates thousands of gallons of water every few minutes.

Value Delivered

M.J. Daly's extensive capacity and experience in the fabrication and installation of complex plumbing systems ensured that the fast-track 4-month project schedule on this large-scale water park was achieved.
